

YANTIS WAGON TRAIN.

Olympia Pioneer and Democrat, Sept.16 and Oct. 15, 1854.

The immigration to Washington by the road opened in 1853 to Walla Walla was not large. The road had been further improved, but was not yet good. Jacob Ebey and W. S. Ebey, with six others of the family, Harvey H. Jones, A. S. Yantis, Moses Kirtland, M. Cox, T. J. Headley, Henry Whitsill, George B. King, the families of Lake and Perry killed by the Indians, C. P. Anderson, Charles Van Wormer, William Goodell, A. D. Neely, J. R. Meeker, M. W. Morrow, James Kirtley, W. N. Ayers, in all about 20 families and 200 head of stock, passed over this route.